Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)

(c) Place of Compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

- (A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or
- (B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person
  - (i) is a party or a party's officer; or
  - (ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

- (A) production of documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and
- (B) inspection of premises at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction—which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees—on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing, or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises—or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

- (i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.
- (ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

- (i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;
- (ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);
- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or
- (iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

- (i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and
- (ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

- (i) expressly make the claim; and
- (ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt.

The court for the district where compliance is required—and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court—may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

SCHEDULE B – DEPOSITION TOPICS

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(a)(1)(B), the deposition will be recorded by stenographic, audio, video and/or real-time transcription (e.g., LiveNote) means. The deposition will be taken for the purposes of discovery, for use at trial in this Litigation and for any purposes permitted under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. A Protective Order is in place in this action, a copy of which is attached hereto as Attachment A. To the extent You believe this subpoena calls for confidential information, documents, or things, You may produce such information, documents, and things with designations in accordance with the Protective Order in responding to this subpoena.

DEFINITIONS

Unless otherwise indicated, the following definitions shall apply.

1. The requests, as well as the instructions provided below, are subject to and incorporate the following definitions and instructions as used herein, regardless of whether upper- or lower-case letters are used. The definitions and instructions set forth in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 26 and 34 are incorporated herein by reference.

2. “Action,” “Litigation” or “Case” means the litigation filed by Qualcomm in the District of Delaware on April 18, 2024, captioned Qualcomm Inc. et al. v. ARM Holdings PLC, C.A. No. 24-490 (MN).

3. “ALA” means Architecture License Agreement, including all amendments and annexes to any such agreement.

4. “Bloomberg” means Bloomberg News, and its predecessors, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, assignees, joint venturers, partners, principals, employees, representatives, agents, officers, trustees, directors, attorneys and all other Persons or entities acting or purporting to act on their behalf, including but not limited to Bloomberg reporter Ian King.

12. The words “identify,” “identity” and “identification” mean to provide:

- a. as applied to an individual or Person, the individual’s or Person’s first and last name; present or last known address and telephone number; present or last known employer, department, role and title; present or last known business address and telephone number; a description of the Person’s role; and the specific subject matter about which the Person is knowledgeable;
- b. as applied to a Document, state the type of Document; date of the Document; names of the individuals who drafted, authored or signed the Document; names of the individuals to whom the Document or a copy thereof was addressed or sent; a summary of the subject matter of the Document; the number of pages of the Document; the present whereabouts of the Document; the name and address of the current custodian; and the Bates number(s), if the Document has been produced; and

- c. as to facts, a statement and complete explanation of each fact, including any and all information considered ancillary or related to the facts disclosed in response to these subpoenas, including but not limited to the circumstances surrounding each fact.

13. “Party” means any of the Plaintiffs or Defendant in the Action captioned Qualcomm Inc. et al. v. ARM Holdings PLC, C.A. No. 24-490 (MN), including Qualcomm Inc., Qualcomm Technologies, Inc., and ARM Holdings PLC.

14. “Person” means any natural person or any business, legal, governmental or regulatory entity or association.

15. “Plaintiffs” means, collectively, Plaintiffs Qualcomm Inc. and Qualcomm Technologies, Inc., Plaintiffs in the Action captioned Qualcomm Inc. et al. v. ARM Holdings PLC, C.A. No. 24-490 (MN), and their principals, employees, representatives, agents, and officers.

16. “Qualcomm” means collectively Qualcomm Inc. and Qualcomm Technologies, Inc., and their principals, employees, representatives, agents and officers.

17. [REDACTED], and its predecessors, successors, affiliates, subsidiaries, parents, assignees, joint venturers, partners, principals, employees, representatives, agents, officers, trustees, directors, attorneys and all other Persons or entities acting or purporting to act on their behalf.

18. “Third Party” or “Third Parties” means any Person other than Plaintiffs and Defendant, as defined in the foregoing paragraphs.

19. As used in these requests, the singular shall include the plural, and the past tense shall include the present tense, and vice versa; the words “and” and “or” shall be both conjunctive and disjunctive; the word “all” shall mean “any and all”; the word “including” shall mean “including, without limitation,” so as to be most inclusive.

INSTRUCTIONS

The following instructions apply to the Topics below and should be considered part of each Topic:

1. In accordance with Rules 30 and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, You are required to designate one or more Persons who are most knowledgeable to testify on Your behalf with respect to matters known or reasonably available to You regarding the Topics described below.

2. If You object to a Topic in whole or in part, You are requested to identify the objection with the language You contend is objectionable and state the interpretation of the language that You used to identify the one or more Persons who are most knowledgeable to testify on the Topic.

3. In interpreting these Topics, Definitions and Instructions: the singular shall include the plural and the plural includes the singular; and “or,” “and,” “and/or,” “and including” shall be read inclusively rather than exclusively.

4. The use of the verb in any tense shall be construed as the use of the verb in all other tenses.

5. All Topics shall be interpreted as unbounded in time unless otherwise stated.

6. Each Topic shall be construed independently, and no Topic shall be viewed as limiting the scope of any other Topic.
